DepEd backs down on HS bridge plan

By James Partridge

On July 10, 1992, the Commission on the Status of Women met in Geneva for its 47th session. The Commission was the only one of the four principal organs of the United Nations that had not yet held a session in 1992. The Commission's work is organized around four main areas: the status of women, the role of women in development, the role of women in peacekeeping, and the role of women in human rights.

the 1990s, the number of people who have been infected with HIV has increased significantly. In 1990, there were about 1 million people living with HIV in the United States. By 2000, that number had risen to about 4 million. And in 2008, it was estimated that there were about 12 million people living with HIV in the United States. This increase in the number of people living with HIV is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the virus is now more easily transmitted than it was in the past. It is also due to the fact that many people who are infected with HIV do not know they are infected, and therefore do not take steps to prevent the virus from spreading.

Sandigan rejects Imelda petition to attend Reagan funeral

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — The Sandigan Commission has rejected a petition from Imelda Marcos to attend the funeral of President Ronald Reagan in Washington, D.C. The commission, which is investigating the Marcos family's alleged wealth, said the petition was "unfounded and without merit." The commission's decision comes after Imelda Marcos filed a petition with the Sandigan Commission, asking for permission to travel to the United States to attend the funeral of President Reagan. The commission's decision is based on the fact that Imelda Marcos is not a citizen of the Philippines and therefore does not have the right to travel abroad. The commission also noted that Imelda Marcos's petition was filed at a late stage in the investigation and that it was not supported by any evidence. The commission's decision is final and cannot be appealed. Imelda Marcos is currently in the United States and is expected to remain there for the time being. The Sandigan Commission is continuing its investigation into the Marcos family's alleged wealth and is expected to release a final report in the near future.

Board won't proclaim winner

BACOLOD CITY—The Board of Canvassers in Silay City, Negros Occidental has defied an order of the Commission on Elections to proclaim the winning mayoral candidate in the city.

Victor Gaborne, Comelec director for Western Visayas, said he was preparing a report to Resurreccion Borra, Comelec commissioner in charge for the region, on the refusal of the BOC to proclaim the winner.

"The Silay BOC is under the Comelec and must abide by its orders. If it fails to do so, the commission can relieve its members and appoint new ones," he said.

The BOC members in Silay are election officer Lourdes Aurelio, schools district superintendent Eva Belecina and city prosecutor Liza Atutubo.

The Comelec second division ordered the BOC to proclaim the winning mayoral candidate after it dismissed the appeal filed by mayoral candidate Jose Montelibano.

Montelibano elevated his pre-proclamation protest to the Comelec after this was junked by the Silay BOC.

He said some returns were tampered with and fraudulent, adding that he had affidavits of witnesses to substantiate his charges.

Montelibano filed a motion asking the Comelec to reconsider its decision junking his appeal.

The Comelec tally showed that incumbent Mayor Carlo Gamban was leading in the race by 283 votes. Gamban had 18,019 votes while Montelibano got 17,736. Edwin Velez was third with 11,902.

It is important to note that the authors do not claim that the results of this study are generalizable to all cases of child sexual abuse. The study was limited to a specific sample of children and families, and the results may not be applicable to other populations.
